
Human Trafficking and Modern Slavery Policy

Policy

Trafficking in persons and slavery for the purposes of exploitation is a serious crime and a gross violation of human rights.

Stantec conducts its business in such a manner so as to support and implement a zero tolerance policy regarding trafficking in persons and modern slavery. Stantec does not permit human trafficking and modern slavery in our business activities, our supply chains, nor tolerate it on any project. This Policy stands alongside Stantec's broader commitment to human rights as outlined in our Human Rights Policy.

Practice

At a minimum, Stantec and its employees shall not (1) engage in any form of forced, trafficked and child labor ("Trafficking in Persons"); (2) procure Commercial Sex Acts; or (3) engage in any act of Modern Slavery.

If an employee violates this Policy, they will be subject to appropriate discipline, including but not limited to removal from the project, reduction in benefits, or termination of employment with or without cause.

Any suspected violation of this Policy by a Stantec employee or subcontractor acting on behalf of Stantec, can be reported to Stantec's Integrity Hotline. Stantec's Integrity Hotline is managed by an independent third party who can receive complaints in a variety of languages. The hotline is structured to receive information verbally, by a web interface, or in writing, and all reports are treated as confidential. Requests for anonymity will be honored to the extent possible while still ensuring a full and proper investigation. It is important that anonymous reports contain sufficient detail for an investigation. Stantec employees can also report suspected violations of this Policy to their line managers or to HR if they prefer.
